Amadeus Flex Pricer

This course describes how Flex Pricer as a shopping engine fits into airline direct distribution channels (digital '.com', NDC, Call-Center, Group Management). Main focus during this course is how to access and administer the FareXpert based Airlines Fare Families module.

On this course, you will:

- > Identify Flex Pricer concepts, terminology and architecture.
- > Create Commercial Fare Families (CFF), Markets, and Fare Families (FF) using the Amadeus FareXpert filing platform
- > Explain the interdependencies of updates in FareXpert and the administration tool of the front-end application (e.g. Site Manager).

This course covers the following topics:

- > Flex Pricer specific terminology and architecture.
- > How to access the Airlines Fare Families module which is based on the Amadeus FareXpert filing platform.
- > How to create a Commercial Fare Family, Markets, and Fare Families.
- > How to use Location-, Vendor-, and Market Aggregates within FareXpert.
- > How updates in FareXpert impact the administration tool of the front-end application (e.g.: Site Manager).
- > Note: Flex Pricer and/or the FareXpert based Fare Families modules can be used in an airline direct (online) channel, and in other contexts such as: ARD Web, NDC, Amadeus Group Manager
